

COVID-19

The Church continues to be alive and active, but our buildings is, at present, closed for public worship.

With the rapid increase in the number of people falling sick with COVID-19, please stay at home, to prevent the spread of infection and save lives.

Along with the other churches of this parish and many other churches locally and nationally, public worship in this building has been suspended. Our worship of God and our care for each other continue but cannot be done in this building.
